Prelude

Welcome and greetings

Acknowledging the land

The United Church of Canada acknowledges that its buildings and ministries, from coast to coast to coast, are on traditional territories of Indigenous Peoples. At Plymouth-Trinity, we are gathered on the traditional territory of the Abenaki and we acknowledge their stewardship of this land through the ages.

Call to worship

One: This is the Creator's world.

All: And we are the Creator's people.

One: An important part, but not the only part of all that is.

All: We are called to be blessing, to be caretakers, to be overseers, to have 'dominion' on God's behalf.

One: For what will we use that responsibility? To create? To destroy?

All: We will use all our abilities to worship God and to live out the call we have been given to care for creation in love and respect, now and always.

One: May it be so.

All: May it be so as we come to worship.

Gathering Song

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful: in love, God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings,

God made their glowing colours, God made their tiny wings.

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful: in love, God made them all.

Opening Prayer (in unison)

We pause at this moment to sense your presence, Gracious God. Your presence can be seen in the rustling wind or in the warming rays of the shortening sun. Your presence can be felt in the gathering of your people here and around the world. Wherever we are, we know that you are there with us, O God. May we continue to experience you as a source of goodness in our lives, this day and always. Amen

She has lived in Granby since 1995, but is originally from Toronto, has two daughters, teaches English as a Second Language and works with children in elementary school to improve their verbal and reading skills.

Samuel is in Montreal, attending Le défi de l'interculturalité dans nos ministères: De Babel à la Pentecôte as a cultural mentor.
