Prelude

Welcome and greetings

Acknowledging the land

The United Church of Canada acknowledges that its buildings and ministries, from coast to coast to coast, are on traditional territories of Indigenous Peoples. At Plymouth-Trinity, we are gathered on the traditional territory of the Abenaki and we acknowledge their stewardship of this land through the ages.

Draw the circle wide. Draw it wider still Let this be our song, no one stands alone,

Traçons un grand cercle. Traçons le plus grand.
C'est notre seule chant, nul n'est solitaire,
debout solidaires, traçons un grand cercle.

God of Freedom, God of justice

Lorsque les mortels

God of freedom, God of justice, you whose love is strong as death,
You who saw the dark of prison, you who knew the price of faith:
Touch our world of sad oppression with your Spirit's healing breath.

Make in us a captive conscience quick to hear, to act, to plead;

Make us truly sisters, brothers of whatever race or creed:

Teach us to be fully human, open to each other's need.

Lorsque danseront les atomes et qui surgira l'Absolu, fais nous place dans ton Royaume; range nous parmi tes élus.

Le Mal à jamais s'efface, dans le grand soleil du salut.

Nous verrons la foule des anges soutenir les pieds du sauveur, et tous les vivants crient louange devant l'Éternel créateur;

les ressuscités proclament leur Alléluia au Seigneur.

Minute for Mission

Viens, mets ton sceau sur mon cœur; viens vivre en moi.

Pies and Privilege: A conversation for those of us of the white racial majority to help us better understand the meaning and implications of "White Privilege".

This has become an important term in recent years to describe the dynamics when people of a variety of backgrounds live together – in society and the church.

To help us unpack the term and its significance, the Rev. Angelika Pich   from the United Theological College will lead us in a conversation on Wednesday, November 13 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. here at Plymouth-Trinity.

In order for us to prepare the Pies that will be part of our gathering, please confirm your presence to Vivienne Galanis (vivgal@sympatico.ca) or Inge Lunkenbein (lunki@abacom.com) or by phone to the church office (819.346.6373) by Sunday, November 10 at the latest.
